

FROM THE PASTOR

On this Father's Day weekend, we honor all of the men who have made the lifelong sacrifice of dedicating themselves to the well being of their families. We also pray for the young men of our Parish, that their developing paternal vocations---natural and spiritual---would be supported by us.

Fittingly, we also observe this weekend the conclusion of the Year for Priests, proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI one year ago. Ours is a time of profound purification, re-discovery, and renewal of the fatherly responsibilities carried in the mission of the ordained Priest. I am personally so grateful to everyone for the countless gifts and graces that have come to me this year through you.

Particular thanks to Rebecca Fitzmaurice, Laura McGuire, and MaryAnn Rodtsbrooks, whose many parish- and diocesan-wide initiatives in promoting the Year for Priests these past months have yielded such abundant fruit. The beautification project of the rectory backyard through the generosity of so many has also been a joy for me. The squirrels and birds outside my window have never had it so good!

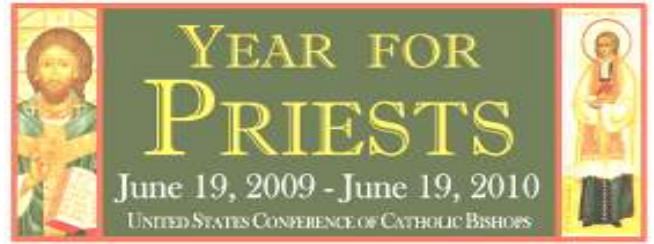

Please keep Deacon Andrew Budzinski in your prayers in the coming days, because Bishop Rhoades will ordain him to the Priesthood for our Diocese this Saturday, June 26 at 10AM in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Ft. Wayne. If you would like to attend the Ordination, contact the Parish Office to coordinate carpooling possibilities.

This coming Tuesday, June 22 at Backstage Grill, I shall be the featured speaker in our Diocesan "Theology on Tap" series. The topic I was asked to speak on is "Catholics in Politics." Although it should have been named "Daniel in the Lion's Den," I have chosen the title: "Born in the USA, Born for Heaven: Living Dual Citizenship." The event is from 6:30 to 8:30PM and is open to everyone.

Finally, I was in Chicago recently to meet up with some friends of mine and do some in-line skating along the trails near Lake Michigan. When in the Windy City, I always stay with the Daughters of St. Paul, who have a great Catholic bookstore on Michigan Avenue. And so what was your Pastor to do but buy books for you . . .

In the vestibule of church you will see the latest new titles for the Fr. Miller Parish Library acquired for your enjoyment. The subtitles of these books should make them self-explanatory. Added to last week's list for summer reading, there should be something interesting and helpful for everyone.

From Blessed Mary, Christ the Lord is our Peace!
Fr. Daniel Scheidt

OUR SPIRITUAL FATHERS

As of yesterday, June 19, the Year for Priests has come to a close. But today, as we acknowledge all fathers and thank them for their hard work and loving service, we must remember our spiritual fathers as well—all our priests who are spending their lives in service to us. The following poem is dedicated to all fathers—those men who give and sustain natural and supernatural life. Happy Father's Day!

A SON IS ORDAINED

A son is born, his parents rejoice.
Baptized in God's house, he is welcomed with joy.
Both mother and father, ever mindful of their duty,
Labor to instill in him their treasure, their faith.

The baby grows quickly.
He soon becomes a little boy.
Reconciliation: humbling but important;
~From the Father, the graces flow . . .

His First Communion brings excitement,
Though he doesn't fully understand.
He believes, as he is told;
~From Christ, the graces flow . . .

The little boy grows quickly.
He soon becomes a young adult.
Confirmation draws him close to God;
~From the Holy Spirit, the graces flow . . .

Trying to discern
The direction of his life,
He one day hears the call:
"Feed my lambs . . . Feed my sheep."

A son is ordained, his parents rejoice.
The people rejoice, "Thank God for our priests!"
They serve us, they teach us--our spiritual fathers.
We always rejoice, "Thank God for our priests!"
