Reading: Frindle

The students started reading our new novel this week. They are working with a partner in reading the story.

English: Adjectives

We will be looking at what adjectives are and comparing them with more and most. We will also be making comparisons with good and bad. There will also be some grammar worked in our Frindle Unit too.

Math: Multiplication

The students will be learning a couple of different methods to help solve multiplication problems. Be on the look-out for multiplication wrestling and lattice methods.

Science/Social Studies:

We are currently finishing our Science Experiments this month and getting ready for the Science Fair on Feb. 7. We will also be starting our unit on Indianapolis Motor Speedway soon. I will be incorporating lots of math, science and writing in this unit!
